We have likened our school days to a giant loom of life on which we have woven the clear cut pattern of our youth.

Each class, each activity, a sturdy thread that tugs and ties and molds our lives.

And through the tapestry the bright threads of guidance and tradition cast their glow.

In future years the pattern of each life will grow and change, but we hope that what is woven here will reflect honor upon our school.

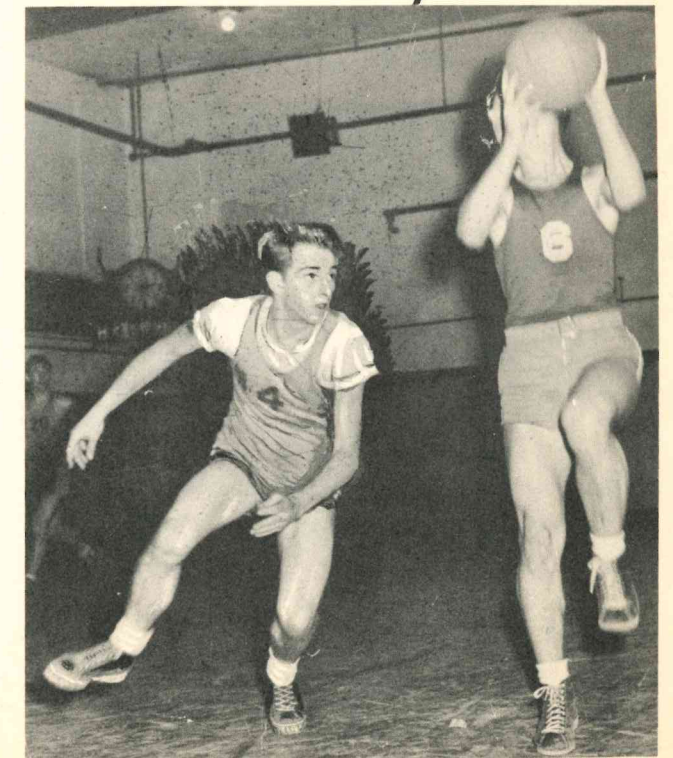

ROGER O'GARA

Seldom . . .

Seldom does Life mete out such rigid tests that cause a basketball captain, a soccer player, a track star to leave the sports arena three months after graduation.

Seldom does a gay, high-spirited fellow take the effects of Infantile Paralysis with a steady spirit and a winning smile.

Seldom have our thoughts been more sincere. With the hope that this remembrance will afford some measure of comfort and encouragement to you, Roger O'Gara, and to all who have been afflicted with Polio, we, the Class of 1950, joyfully dedicate our fondest "C. I. TREASURES".

CENTRAL ISLIP HIGH SCHOOL

We have felt that this was "our" school, but as far back as May 20, 1850 the Central Islip High School District was organized as a Common School, and in 1865 it was changed to a Union Free School. In 1929 the present High School was formed and the first graduating class, June 1930, consisted of two members. Our current high school enrollment is 257.

THE GOLDEN THREADS OF LIFE ENTWINE, TO FORM
A PATTERN CLEAR AND BOLD, THAT TRACES IN EACH
GLEAMING LINE, THIS STORY WE UNFOLD.

JUNIOR PROM

We started the year with a dance in October at which everyone had a good time.

Later in the year when the basketball season rolled around our boys won the Interclass Basketball Championship banner.

A few of our pupils took part in the Variety Show and proved very talented.

Our Junior Prom was a gala affair. The gym was beautifully decorated in our class colors, green and white. Everyone had an enjoyable evening.

INTRODUCING THE SOPHOMORES WHO ARE HALFWAY THROUGH, WITH A LITTLE ENCOURAGEMENT THEY'LL MAKE IT TOO.

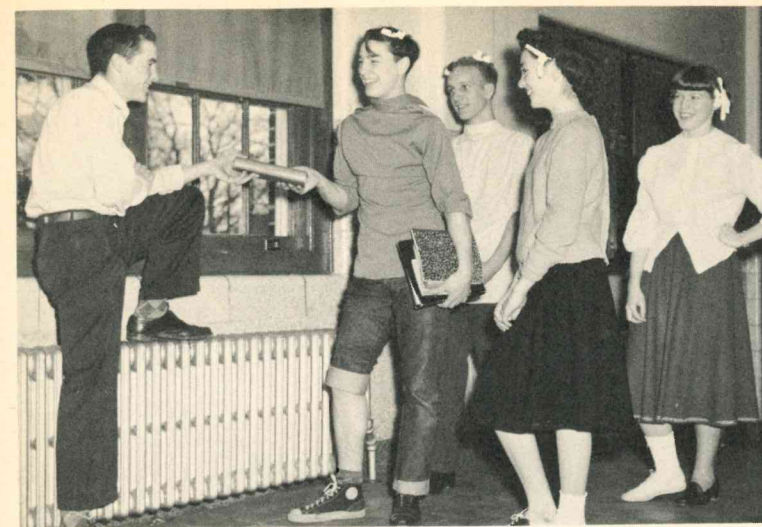

The Sophomores started off with a bang by electing Christopher Crotty, President; Charles Lindstrom, Vice-President; Madeline Curto, Recording Secretary; Gertrude Devers, Corresponding Secretary; and Margaret O'Connor, Treasurer.

As the year went by, Freshman Initiation came along and we really gave the poor Frosh a hard time. This was climaxed by the "Get Wise" Assembly, when the Freshmen proved that they were good sports. A dance followed at which they were honored — therefore all was forgiven.

The next main event was the Sophomore dance. It was a huge success and everyone had a gala time. Now, as the year draws to a close, we look forward to the time when we will be Juniors and, eventually, when we, too, can take our place in the Senior homeroom.

Class dues were set at the rate of ten cents a month.

In February, President Patrick Mahoney was transferred to East Islip High School and Vice-President Erma Campbell took his place.

Three parties were held during the year, one at Thanksgiving, another at Christmas, and the last one at Easter.

A Teen Age Book Club, which enabled the students to obtain popular books at low prices, was organized and put into use for the first time.

Although no particularly remarkable events occurred and most of our meetings were brief and informal, the entire class feels this has been one of our most enjoyable school years due to the excellent supervision and guidance of our class advisor and homeroom teacher, Mrs. Mulligan.

Davison, Haber, Campbell and Bayer.

THREAD YOUR LOOM FOR '55 AND '54

WORTHWHILE CHORE.

When we entered the 7th grade, we found that we liked the departmental system, although the work was extra hard.

In the beginning of the year we elected our officers. They are William Fisher, President; Carol Fisher, Vice-President; Peter Schales, Secretary; Samuel Gomez, Treasurer and Joseph Grimes, S. O. Representative.

At Christmas we had a party and one of our classmates, John Schnebly, played "Scrooge" in the Christmas play.

During the year we helped the Seniors by participating in their Variety Show — Gertrude Donato sang, Margaret Signorelli did a ballet and Elsie Maltese expertly performed a toe dance.

William Ruescher, Joseph Grimes, and Joseph Piazza were on the Grade School basketball team which did very well this year.

In June we had a beach party and talked about being eighth graders — next year!

THEY ARE JUST AWAY

We cannot say, and we will not say,
That they are gone — they are just away.
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
They have wandered into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since they linger there.
So think of them faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here
Think of them still as the same, we say.
They are not gone — they are just away.

Washington Trip

Story of the Washington Trip

In the early hours of the morning of April 11, 1950 a group of excited seniors were eagerly waiting for the bus to arrive. At 7:00 we, the Senior Class of 1950, were on our way to Washington.

After crossing the Delaware River by ferry, we stopped in Baltimore, Maryland, at the fashionable Southern Hotel. Here we had an enjoyable lunch and it was a pleasure to be waited on.

As we approached Washington at 6:00 P.M. it was a very inspiring sight to see the Capitol as the center of attraction. A sight like this made us all proud to feel that we were Americans.

We arrived at the Hotel Martinique, a tired and hungry group of individuals. We were assigned our rooms, and after a refreshing pause, we were told that we were going to dine when ready. That evening several of us stayed at the hotel while others went swimming at the Hotel Ambassador, and still others went for walks or sight-seeing.

On the first day we were called at approximately 7:00 A.M. and told to be down for breakfast at 7:30 A.M. After breakfast we began our first tour to the Bureau of Printing and Engraving. Here we saw paper money being made, unfortunately, we couldn't obtain any souvenirs. Next we visited the United States Capitol, where we viewed the President's rooms, the room where the House of Representatives meets, where the Senate meets and the room where Congress convenes. After this tour through the Capitol we had our class picture taken, with the Capitol dome in the background.

After dinner we traveled on to the Lincoln Memorial, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, where we saw how the F.B.I. apprehends dangerous public enemies. Our last tour was the Arlington National Cemetery, to see the changing of the guard at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. A few steps in back of the Tomb was the National Memorial Amphitheatre made completely of marble. This was a beautiful sight since the sun was shining directly on the marble. After having supper at the hotel we all visited the Congressional Library. This was an educational tour as well as an enjoyable one. We then ventured on to an amusement park where everyone had the time of their lives.

Thursday morning we toured the Supreme Court Building which is also pure white marble. We visited the Mellon Art Gallery, the Smithsonian Institute and later, the Washington Monument which is 555 feet high and has 900 steps. The class decided to go in to see the inside of this famous monument; some of us walked up the steps and others who were smart took the elevator! As the students were ascending the stairs one by one they passed John Thorogood and Yvonne Bolton who were helping each other to climb the 900 steps. We all took the elevator down except for two brave people Emily Spillane and Roy DuJat who with inexhaustible determination walked down the steps and all the way to the bus. After a delicious lunch at the hotel we again started our touring. We visited Annapolis and some of the girls were fortunate enough to take pictures of some of the officers. We then journeyed on to the Franciscan Monastery which was of high interest to most of us. There were numerous altars, some underground and our guide also showed us the catacombs. This was of great importance to us since we all wondered how early worshippers of the Christian faith behaved.

Friday morning we started out for Hotel Yorktowne in York Pennsylvania. We ate lunch in the Francis Scott Key Hotel and later toured Gettysburg. We finally arrived at the hotel, ate dinner and got ready for an evening of fun. We had a party and afterward went out for a snack.

On Saturday morning we all realized that a perfect week had come to a close. On the way home we toured Valley Forge and Independence Hall, had dinner at a Horn and Hardart Restaurant and later stopped at a Howard Johnson Restaurant for a snack. We arrived in Central Islip at 8:40 P.M., happy to be home again. The class gave three rousing cheers for Miss Mannix, Mr. Shertenlieb, Mr. Markey and for the bus driver, Nick. We shall hold this memory in our minds as long as we live and with deepest appreciation we, the Seniors of 1950, want to thank all those people who made it possible for us to go.

SENIOR PLAY

The house lights dimmed, a hush fell over the audience and the curtain rose on the first act of our Senior Play, "Ever Since Eve". The hopeful Thespians did a wonderful job on this amusing story of the Clover family and gave us an evening of laughter and relaxation.

Standing—Grodewald, Gerhard, Campbell
Seated—McCrone, Miss Mannix, Downes, Spillane, O'Gara, McCarthy, Bolton and Premo

"Ever Since Eve" is the story of young Johnny Clover, editor of his school paper — "The Penguin". Johnny, who takes himself very seriously, is bullied and teased by his young girl friend, Susan. Two other characters, who provide many amusing incidents, are Spud and his sister Betsy. The events in the life of a typical American family provide the basis for this humorous play.

Thorogood, Haber and Lumpe

Well, I guess Principal Henry Quinn and Journalism teacher, Martha Willard, should look astounded; certainly they had no idea that they were married!!! And John Quinn is the editor of the school paper!

Valerio, Quinn, Crotty and Keehner

C. I. SHADOWS

The "C. I. Shadows", our monthly school paper, has served its purpose very well. It has contained interesting and valuable information intermingled with fun and humor.

The November issue was submitted to the Empire State School Press Association for entry in the "Better School Publications Contest", and we received a certificate of SUPERIOR rating which speaks for itself.

The Staff sponsored two successful interschool contests also, namely, "Who Am I?" and "Miss Central Islip High School".

Several members of the club are Seniors who will be leaving us in June. For the splendid work which they have done we say "Thank you" very sincerely. At our organization meeting for the 1950-51 school year we hope to find new and varied talent.

With Editor Meryl Haber, Co-editor Mary Crotty, Business Manager Joan Burke, and Advisor Mrs. Helen O'Pezio, the entire Staff worked willingly and cooperatively to make this the school's best newspaper year.

SPANISH CLUB

Besides attracting the entire school to sing "Cielito Lindo", the Spanish Club had chosen as its goal the fostering of interest in Spanish Culture for the entire school—not just for those who study the language. Their major project was a three act play entitled "Casa di Hiladeo". The Latin Countries are getting their publicity free of charge!

ART CLUB

We do the decorating! Art Club members deck the halls at Christmas and dress up the school for its Easter parade. Club members also brighten the halls with their gay posters but the most wonderful thing of all is the time and talent they devote to put out C. I. Treasures. We really appreciate their effort and their talents!

Art education has been furthered by a trip to New York City's Art Museums.

SCIENCE CLUB

Scientists are wealthy . . . or that is what we are led to believe by the Science Club's activities.

They had a most interesting experience at the Museum of Science and Industry where the panorama of railroad development made the Long Island Railroad look out-dated.

The trip to the N. B. C. radio studio proved entertaining but they still have hopes of traveling to Radio City Music Hall and the Museum of Natural History.

Except for the scientific mind that is a "must" we would all be members!

BOARD OF CONTROL

The Board of Control rates high on our list! They give us two big E's—entertainment and encouragement. It is the Board of Control that makes all arrangements for our wonderful assembly programs. They appropriate money for athletic awards which certainly encourages our team.

LIBRARY CLUB

Do you know what great pleasure can be found between the covers of a book? This year our library club is trying to convince everyone, teachers, students, and grade people alike of the advantages of a steady reading program. Their slogan is: "Let books and the library be your friends—visit them frequently."

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

We are practical! We, the Home Economics Club, do practical things! Before Christmas we sponsored a clothing drive for the benefit of a family in Kentucky.

It is the purpose of our club to promote an interest in homemaking, not only in the fields of clothing and foods but in the other areas of home and family life.

THE GLEE CLUB

CAMERA CLUB

Click! Click! Shutter bugs all over the place. Camera Club members are on the look out for photographic material. Under the guidance of Miss Olga Carissimi and Reverend William Smith they are learning to enlarge and develop their own pictures. The Camera Club is truly an interesting and exciting club.

Bolton, Loughlin, McKeever, (F.) Spillane, Haber, DuJat, Mr. Shipule

C. I. TREASURES

At first the threads were completely knotted, and we worried, worried, worried, wondering if we would ever be able to unravel them and meet our quota for ads. Here the leading business staff members thoroughly relax as they realize they have reached their goal — thanks to the complete cooperativeness from the businessmen of our community.

EACH THREAD IS WOVEN IN AND OUT, AND FROM IT GROWS A WONDROUS THEME.
A STORY TRUE, THAT TELLS ABOUT: THE PLAY, THE DANCE, THE TEAM.

Added insurance behind the plate will be offered by Frank McKeever and Kenneth Wood, the team's outstanding catchers. Sorely missed will be Peter Luisi and Raymond Wurm, main-stays for the past several years.

The Musketeers have an experienced set of pitchers in Raymond Mulesky, John Thorogood, Albert Lumpe, and Eugene Coppola. Off to a shaky start last season they soon gained the confidence they needed and undoubtedly will prove to be a tremendous asset to this year's team.

BASKETBALL

This year the Central Islip girls' basketball team won the playday championship at Bay Shore High School.

Central Islip competed with Sayville, Islip, and Smithtown. The following girls were on the team: Meryl Haber, Arlene Davidson, Helen Dorosh, Jennie Gomez, Stella Tarnecki, Madeline Ott, Ann Fazio, and Elizabeth Valerio. Alternates were Eleanor Kelly and Gertrude Kurtz.

HOCKEY

All girls with athletic ability were welcomed on the Hockey team. They played East Islip, Bay Shore and Smithtown and wound up the season by attending a playday at Bay Shore High School and racked up the following scores:

| | | | |
|-----------|----|-------|----|
| Islip | 6 | C. I. | 21 |
| Smithtown | 8 | C. I. | 9 |
| Sayville | 10 | C. I. | 13 |

CHEERLEADERS

Come on Purple! Come on Gold! Here come the girls who pep up the team. On the field, on the court the cheerleaders keep us yelling for our team. Hep! Hep! Let's go!

Burke, Haber, Cunnius, Davidson, McCarthy, Kurtz

GIRLS' VOLLEY BALL TEAM

Central Islip again has a girls' volley ball team, but this year instead of having one team, Coach Rosemarie Krulish had three teams from which the "Honor Team" was chosen. This gave us a new goal toward which to work and a new workout that we will not soon forget.

BAND

Strike up the band! A blare of trumpets, a ruffle of drums and the C. I. band is off to another thrilling performance. Some of these young musicians are members of the New York State School Music Association. Their best performance is reserved for our very special Spring Concert.
