Dedication

Theodore E. Jamison

Scorpio

We, the Class of 1954, proudly dedicate our Treasures to a man whom we feel is "out of this world." As Junior class advisor, and Vice-Principal of our high school, Mr. Jamison guided us through our Junior year with patience for our many mistakes and prepared us for our final goal. With his aid our Prom was an outstanding success—socially as well as financially. Mr. Jamison's Math students will always remember him for his helpfulness in instructing them in their work in class as well as out of the classroom. It is with sincere thanks and appreciation for the guidance we have received from Mr. Jamison that we make this dedication.

FRED F. SHERTENLIEB
Supervising Principal

Farewell

To the Class of 1954, I say, "farewell". In writing this, the words seem so final and in truth it is the end of a pleasant friendship.

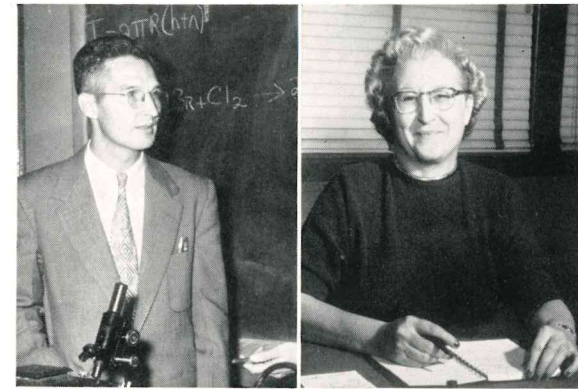

Each of you will go his separate way, facing the complexities of life with the assurance that you had your academic opportunity. Remember always, that it is up to you as an individual to evaluate the road ahead. Constantly strive to meet the future with a will that is strong and resolute. Heed always the words of wisdom learned in your church and school.

We, the faculty, have finished our work, proud in the knowledge that we too will share in any of your future accomplishments. And so farewell.

Senior Class Will

We the class of 1954, being of sound mind and body, do hereby publish our last will and testament.

First: To Mr. Shertenlieb we leave our sincere thanks for his excellent guidance and the patience he has shown toward us.

Second: To the faculty we leave our appreciation for the knowledge we have gained through their teachings and hope that we will use it correctly.

Third: To the Juniors we leave our understanding of our underclassmen, hoping that they will do the same when they are Seniors next year.

Fourth: To the Silly Sophomores we leave a small bit of seriousness so that they will not get into trouble.

Fifth: To the Freshmen we bequeath our good reputation as a model class with the earnest desire that they will turn from their wayward path into the narrow path of conscientious hard work.

We do further bequeath and bestow upon our successors at C. I. High the following:
Lucille Beckhans—her dues blues to next years Senior treasurer.

Erma Campbell—her knowledge to the next edition of Americana Encyclopedia that our school purchases.

Charles Bayer—an aspirin for Miss Mannix to cure her Senior headaches.

Joe Clerkin—his spot in Room 14 to Joan Kelly.

Pat Campbell—her ability to get along with the boys to Barbara Myatt.

Joanne Coleman—her ability to cheerlead to Marjie Davison.

John Craig—"his kissable lips" to Mary Anne Gomez.

Michael Horan—his physique to Vinny Spillane.

Joan Craig—her ability to ride a horse to Elsie Maltese so that her pony-tail won't be lonely.

Marialies Gerkin—leaves her ready smile to Alan Austin.

Joan Noshese—her excellence in Shorthand to those students who pass notes in class.

Barbara Guerin—her ability to get in and out of jams to Margie Dee.

Robert Siew—his mechanical ability to Bill Fisher.

Warren Fandrey—his crew cut to Bill Ruescher.

Eileen Shanley—her Eng. 3 mark to Bud.

Herman Hugo—his friendship with Bridie Keane to his brother.

Fred Hunt—his bookkeeping book to Barbara Swaine.

Carol Haber—her theme song of "Stormy Weather" to Pat Hayes.

Hilda Haselbeck—her Girl Scout badge to Anne O'Kane.

Phil Lamanna—his truck to anyone who likes to joyride.

Jack Mesko—his lover-like qualities to Jimmy Williams.

Ann Juhlin—her dignity to Grace Veechi.

Adele Kuehne—her ability to run to Chris King.

Robert Swaine—his razor to Albert Potenziano.

Tommy Plant—his broken nose to our future football team.

Pam McDougal—Bellport to her sister.

Rosemarie Mehner—her seat in Judy-
Nans to Gene Pastore.

John McCourt—his basketball ability to Clem Vacaro.

Charles Champagne—his "b u b b l i n g" name to Jean Calabrese.

Marie O'Kane—"Dixie's" accent to Dim-pie Donato.

Gerry Radley—her eyes to the halls of C.
I. High so that she can keep a watch over Bill.

Helen Stadtmiller—her calmness to Mario Barra.

Richard Demarse—his "savior faire" to Pete Schales.

Kathy Ward—her big, brown eyes to Mr. Miller.

Frances Devine—her ability to go steady to Rosemarie Ketcham.

Joan Ehrhardt—her will-power to Joan Romaine.

Barbara Davison—her fondness of red hair to Marie Murphy.

Bridget Keane—her adorable Irish brogue to Jose Resto.

Al Duarte—his mirror to the girls basement.

Bob Pardini—his seat in the Big Five's car to one of next years wheels.

Bill Carr—his romantic illusions to Jimmy Lindstrom.

Dorothy Corcoran—her desire to be a model to Ursula Rottman.

William Schmidt—his height to Jackie Murdock.

Our Senior

It is now 1964. As we travel around the earth in the spacious lounge strato-cruiser designed by the Sice Swaine Corporation, we stop occasionally to locate our classmates.

First stop—Calcutta, India. Stationed here is the "Perfecto Hugh V", Nation Relation Corporation. The originators, naturally, Pardini, Craig, Fandrey, Plant, and Mesko.

Next stop—Istanbul, Turkey. Here stands the largest Hugo theatre, now playing, "The Story of Many Loves", starring Pat Campbell. Across the street is the Istanbul Reform School, principal—Barbara Davison and Michael Horan—president of the "Bored of Education."

Our next stop—Berlin, Germany. Here we find Charlie Bayer—Chief of Police. Also from Berlin came the Clerkin—Lamana, "Circus of Colossal Events", featuring Marie O'Kane and her trained white mice, Circus fat lady—Joanne Coleman and also featuring Joan Noschese, Barbara Guerin and Rosemarie Mehner—daring trapeze riders.

We visit Paris, France, next, where Helené Stadtmilleré designs clothes modeled by Dorothy Corcoran, Kathleen Ward, Marialies Gerken and Ann Juhlin. Touring France are the million-dollar comedians, Joan Craig and Richie Demarse, managed by Fred Hunt, and wealthy owners, Joan Ehrhardt and Lucille Beckhans. At one of the large Paris airports, celebrities Eileen Shanley and Willis Schmidt await the arrival of Countess Caryl Von Harbor of Luxembourg. Her destination—the French home of Baron Jon Pierre McCourt. Her purpose—to make any changes in the French government which she feels necessary.

Next, we visit the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, Al Duarte is President. Doctors Charles Champagne and Adele Kuehne graduated from here with honors.

We leave Europe, and while flying over the Atlantic Ocean we pass Erma Campbell's Flying Saucer Space Station. Two most brilliant scientists, Bill Carr and Matilda Haselbeck, are Erma's faithful partners.

Ten minutes later we arrive at Haupauge airport and meet the commercial artist Pam McDougall putting up another of her advertisements for "Mama Bridie's Pizza House."

We now end our journey in Central Islip, the Capital of Long Island, 51st State of the Union.

Still in this town are two Seniors of '54—Frankie and Jeri—determined to hook Gus and Bill.

Year In Review

September arrived and we started our last year at C.I.H.S. We were now the Seniors, the leaders of our school.

"Ma" Mannix gave us a list of all the things we had to sell for the year to earn money for our Washington trip. Oh, how we groaned when we heard them, and we thought we would never make it.

On September 25 we opened our magazine campaign with a bang. We will always remember our first sales. One would go up to a prospective customer's house and ask timidly if they would be interested in buying a subscription to a magazine to help finance our trip to Washington. If they said "no" your spirits would get deflated. but if they said "yes" you felt as though you were sitting on top of the world. Nothing could stop you from reaching your goal.

Christmas cards were next on the agenda. With the terrific sales experience we acquired from the magazine campaign the Christmas cards were a whiz to sell.

Then came the Senior Play. Those of us that were "hams" at heart showed up for tryouts for the different parts. The others worked hard on ticket sales, stage managing, ushering, and many other important details. A few days after tryouts "Ma" posted the list of students that were chosen for the parts. The cast learned their parts in the rehearsal weeks that followed. The work was hard but it was well worth our while. Came the big night and everyone had a slight case of nerves. Despite all of our fears, with the help of Miss Mannix and Mr. Miller, the play was a huge success.

During our Yearbook meetings we worked on the photographic and literary angles of our "Treasures." At the suggestion of one of our faculty advisors we served tea and cake at some of our meetings.

When November rolled around the girls in C.I.H.S. seemed to have been bitten by the knitting bug. Socks seemed to be the specialty, and the girls devoted their free time to making their creations.

After Christmas vacation the weeks seemed to fly past and before we knew it, it was Easter week. It finally had arrived. Our Washington trip—it will always be remembered by us. The bus ride down, our stay at the hotel, our night out, and the homeward journey were four days of fun and excitement.

In June we crammed like mad to pass our final exams. We did pass, however, and the final event was upon us. Commencement night was to be the end of the education road for most of us. Some of our classmates would attend colleges in the fall, but the rest of us would have to venture into the world to seek out our careers and face our future.

On a beautiful evening in May 1953 our Senior Class presented Central Islip High School's annual Junior Prom. The atmosphere was one of gaiety and excitement. The auditorium portrayed an Evening in Paris with blue, white and silver decorations. Shining stars, black silhouettes and flowers accented our theme which conveyed the impression of a Parisian night.

Throughout the evening everyone danced to the music of the De Moulin Rouge orchestra. The faculty was well represented with the presence of Mrs. Shertenlieb, Mr. and Mrs. Bertino, Mr. and Mrs. Lynch, Miss Mannix, Miss Mulvey, Mr. and Mrs. O'Pezio, Mr. and Mrs. Markey, Mr. Jamison, Mr. Wilson and Miss Curran.

At twelve o'clock the orchestra played the song "Moulin Rouge", as the candidates for King and Queen took their places on either side of the thrones. Mr. Jamison, our faculty advisor, announced the new King and Queen. Barbara Davidson won the title of Queen and Jack Mesko the title of King. The King's and Queen's crowns were carried by Dianne and Timmy Devine. After the winning candidates had been announced, they were crowned by the past Queen Joan Runz. The King and Queen danced while the orchestra played the song from Moulin Rouge.

Soon after the crowning the Prom slowly came to its closing. The majority of the people departed for Sunrise Village.

The following day everyone of the Juniors arrived on time to change our Parisian night back into our gymnasium.

Many Moons Ago

Our Senior Play

On our trip through the universe we come across the famous Moonlight Theatre and shining in bright lights is "A Date with Judy", starring Joanne Coleman. The critics came out praising the play as being very enjoyable. The plot follows the classic bulletin of the radio serial.

When Judy Foster makes up her mind that she is going to be Queen of the Ball, things begin to happen. First her father becomes known as "Kissable Lips" Foster, and then her mother becomes a satisfied user of "Glinto" a hair dye.

In an effort to win first prize in an essay contest, Judy writes an essay to top all essays on "I am a Bigamist". This gets replaced for her mother's speech and is read at the P.T.A. meeting. Just as her mother was being asked to resign from the P.T.A., Oogie Pringle dashes in to say he was taking Judy's rival to the Ball.

Randolph's keen sense of humor keeps the Foster family in a state of chaos, but finally things settle down to normality and everyone's problems are solved.

The success of the play was greatly due to the well chosen cast and the director, Mr. Harold Miller.

The Glee Club

Junior Orchestra

Washington, D. C. . . . and away We Go!

On April 21st, 1954, at 7:00 a.m. forty seniors alert and keen, accompanied by Miss Mannix, Miss Brittan and Mr. Cowie, left Central Islip for our Nation's Capitol, Washington.

Our first stop was in New Jersey where we were met by a man who was destined to become a life-long friend, "Nick." Nick took over the job of navigator of the trip and a mighty fine job he did.

Because of the excitement of getting started we weren't able to eat any breakfast, so we pleaded with the powers that be to let us stop for a snack. We might add here that that snack idea continued for the remainder of the trip.

After a grand lunch at the Plaza Hotel in Baltimore, Maryland, we journeyed to Annapolis where we witnessed the dress parade of the midshipmen from the Academy.

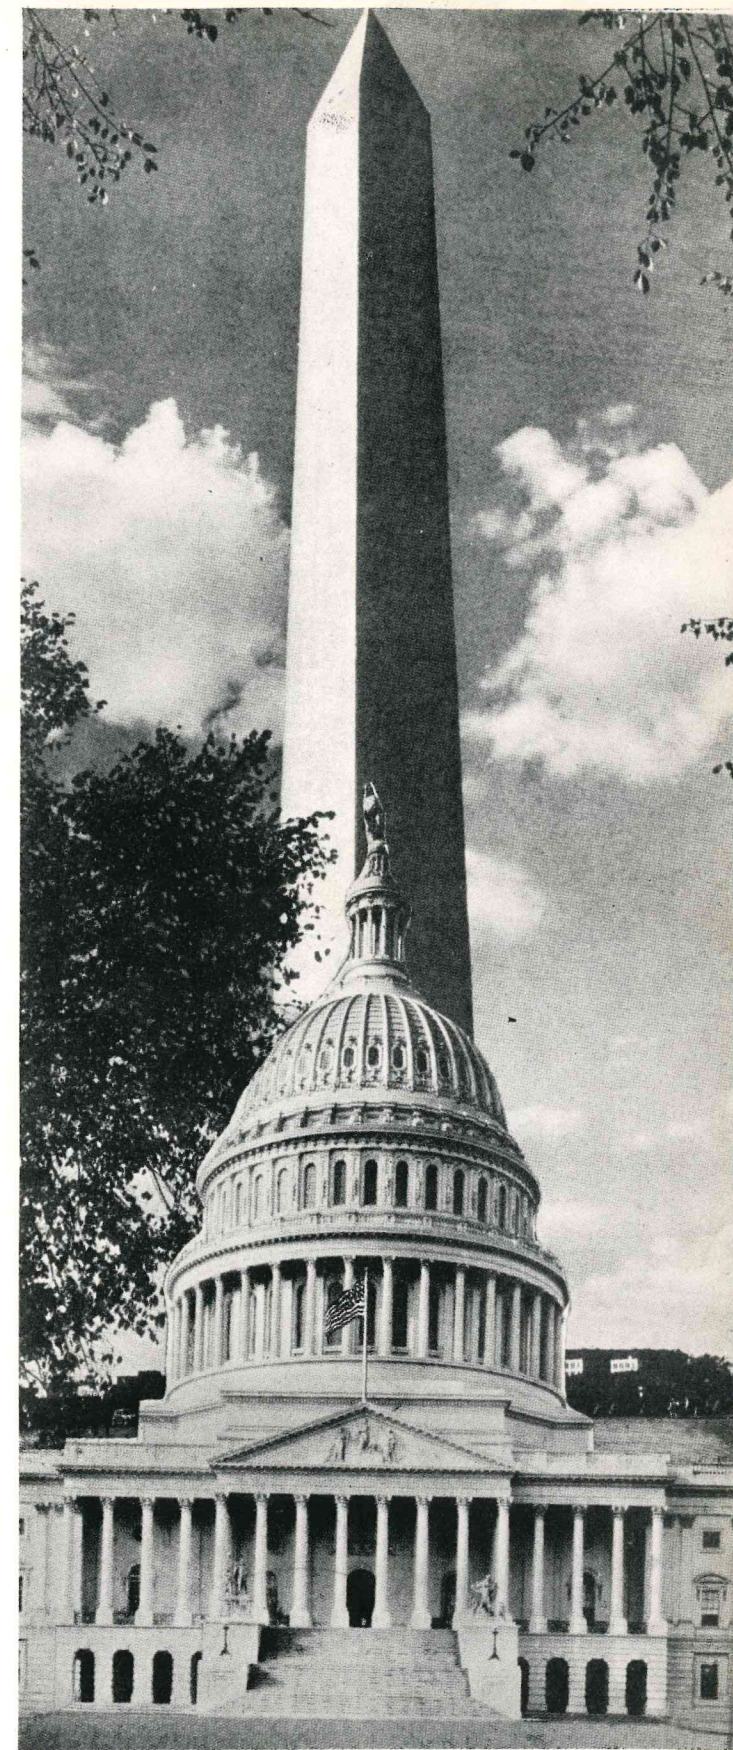

At about six o'clock we arrived at the Congressional Hotel which was to be our home for the next three days.

Among the places of historical and cultural interests which we visited during our stay in Washington were, the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, Washington Monument, Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials, Capitol, U. S. Supreme Court Building, Congressional Library, Smithsonian Institute, Corcoran Art Gallery, Masonic National Arlington Cemetery, Tomb of Unknown Soldier, Franciscan Monastery, and George Washington's home in Mt. Vernon.

Our guided tour of the city showed us many interesting and historical places. Especially interesting was the Embassy Row which houses the ambassadors from the different foreign countries.

On Thursday evening we were treated to a rare event, a moonlight cruise down the Potomac River. This was aboard a 2400 passenger boat and what fun we had dancing to the orchestra and roaming around the four deck boat. To say we had a wonderful four days would be putting it mildly so suffice it to say that we'll never forget the trip as long as we live.

We would also like to express our sincerest thanks to our chaperones, Mr. Shertenlieb, and those who contributed to make this trip possible.

C. I. Treasures

As our Senior year all too quickly draws to a close, we, the Class of 1954, look back upon our last four years with many happy and some poignant memories. It is to be remembered how as Freshmen, we suffered through initiation week. Then when we became Sophomores, we found that we had the privilege of welcoming the new Freshmen. None of us will ever forget the most outstanding event of our Junior year—the Junior Prom. All our weeks of planning and work blossomed into the most successful affair of its kind that our school had held in several years. Now, the Senior Play and Washington Trip are foremost in our minds. As we approach June and graduation, truly we may say that these were “the best years of our lives.”

The members of the yearbook staff would like to express our heart felt thanks and sincere appreciation to each and every person who has helped make the 1954 edition of the “C. I. Treasures” possible. A special note of thanks goes to our advisors, Miss Mannix, Mr. Grassi, and Mr. Lukowski. Without their encouragement and guidance, our yearbook would not have been a success.
