TREASURES 1975
Published by the Students of
Central Islip High School
Central Islip, New York

IN MEMORY OF
FRANCES INFUSO
AND THERESA REED

Like the wind blows — so goes life Leaving behind a bitter struggle with strife

Their hearts were filled with love for others
Their actions showed that love makes all brothers

Reflections of their life will make brighter
tomorrows,

As we forget the things that brought their deep sorrow

DEDICATION

There have been many individuals in the history of Central Islip High School who have spent many years here serving the community. The staff of the TREASURES does not necessarily feel that quantity of service mandates a dedication. We feel that quality of service must also be examined. For this reason, Mr. Donald Meehan has been selected as the recipient of this year's dedication.

Seldom have the students and faculty of Central Islip High School had the opportunity to work with a man so dedicated to his job. He is a man whose concern for students, faculty and school does not end with the close of school. Often Mr. Meehan's day goes long into the late afternoon hours. This is a description of a man whose love and dedication for a community far exceeds anything contributed by average people. His interest and care are genuine. There is nothing he would not do or sacrifice for the school.

We, the Yearbook Staff, are honored to dedicate this 1975 TREASURES to Mr. Donald Meehan.

We cried a little in games well lost
. . . and tried
a little harder

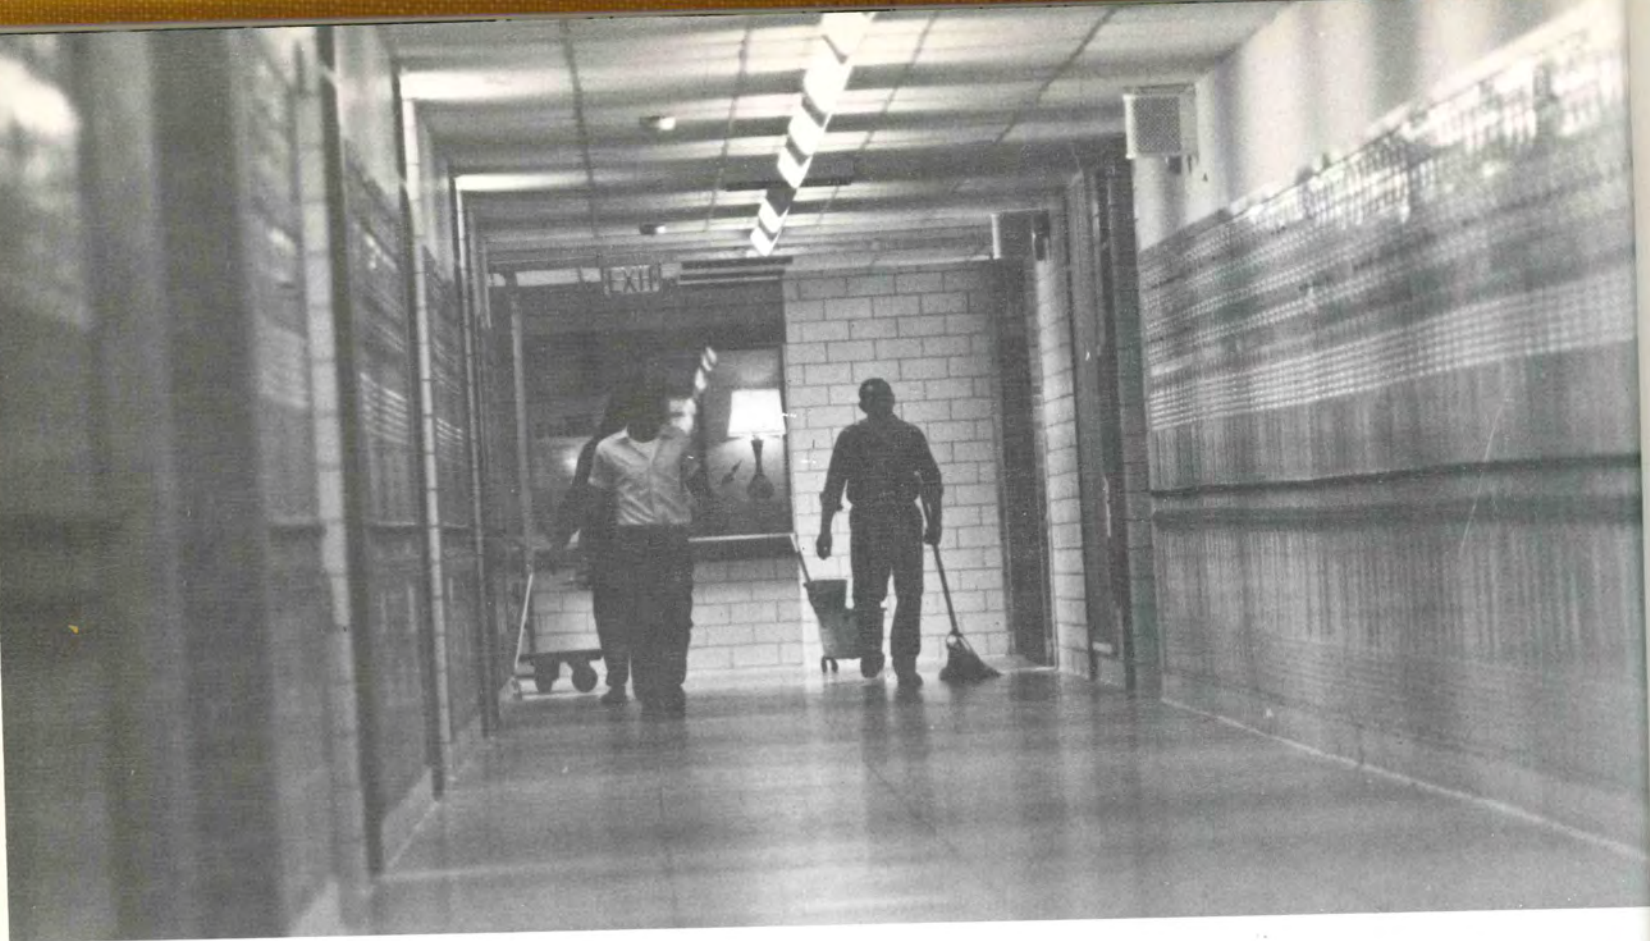

We climbed a mountain
and with each step,
grew a little stronger.

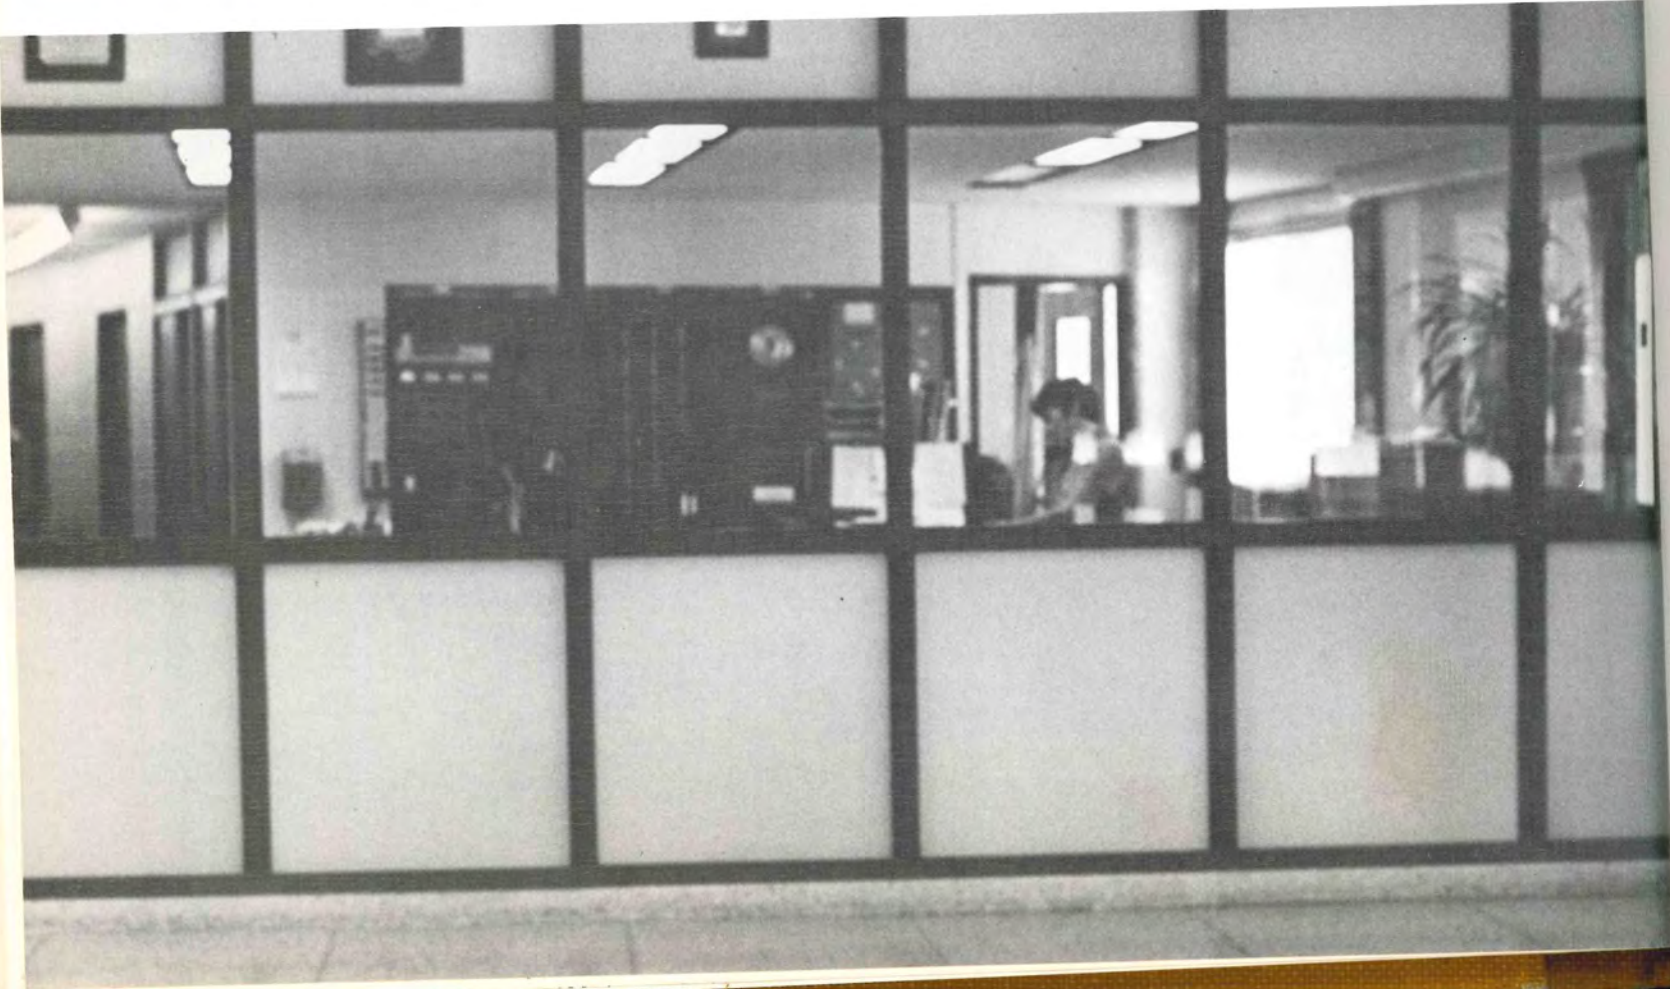

We tasted victory
— and rejoiced
in the humanity
of living.

We'd like to extend our appreciation to all the hard-working secretaries and to the efficient custodial staff. Thanks for jobs well done.

Bye Bye Birdie

In a yesterday full of now we dreamed . . . of winning of achieving — of making it

We shared we fought we gave of ourselves to one another.

We created worlds,
discovered man,
and left something
behind . . .

A carousel of being, the break of day,
the cry of a newborn child

and one in many.

"Ricky watch out for the 'manhandler' " Love Debbie
 "Polly-vie, Humma — Humma"
 "Later"
 "Lickey — Lickey — Phew, Hot Dogs!"
 "Never forget Halloween night"
 "Hey Winky Dink, thanks for the 50¢"
 "To Mr. S. — When will we have that chicken soup?"
 "Michael and Kathy — 1-10-75"
 "I love bumpy roads at 3 o'clock on Sunday mornings remember?"
 "Special thanks to Mrs. Barbara Nietzel a good teacher an even a better friend: Thanks for listening."
 "Judy Wiese and Larry Keiser 12-26-74"
 "Boss — we love you, no matter what happens. See you at Reese's! Love your two zany partners in crime!"
 "Randi Bjorkren and Don Barnes — 12-6-74"
 "Tom Riker and Sharon Petrunich — 12-29-73"
 "Hey Dick! — Huh."
 "Donald — never stop caring"
 "Good luck class of 75 — Love Kathy"
 "Check a box.
 "Wanda we'll get a lead next year, you'll see!"
 "The Immediate five-party!"
 "Everybody Party Hardy!"
 "I'd drive to the end of the island with you and did."
 "Bob if she didn't come first — Dianne would — thanks."
 "God help me."
 "Barbara and Doug"
 "Richard and Mary"
 "Hi Guys"
 "Many thanks to the Lutzs family."
 "Marianne and Woodie"
 "Betty and Ray 10-5-73"
 "Debbie always remember 2nd period, Betty"
 "Donald — Thanks for all the time you really didn't have but
