Life —
so they say . . .

Love — like the autumn
sun . . .

Should be dying . . .

Like the
twilight . . .

And all the secrets of the universe

Whisper
in our
ears

and take
us
up always up

Dreams
so they
say are for . . .

They let them slip a w
a
y

Peace like the silent dove
should be flying
but it's only
just begun

Like Columbus
in
olden days

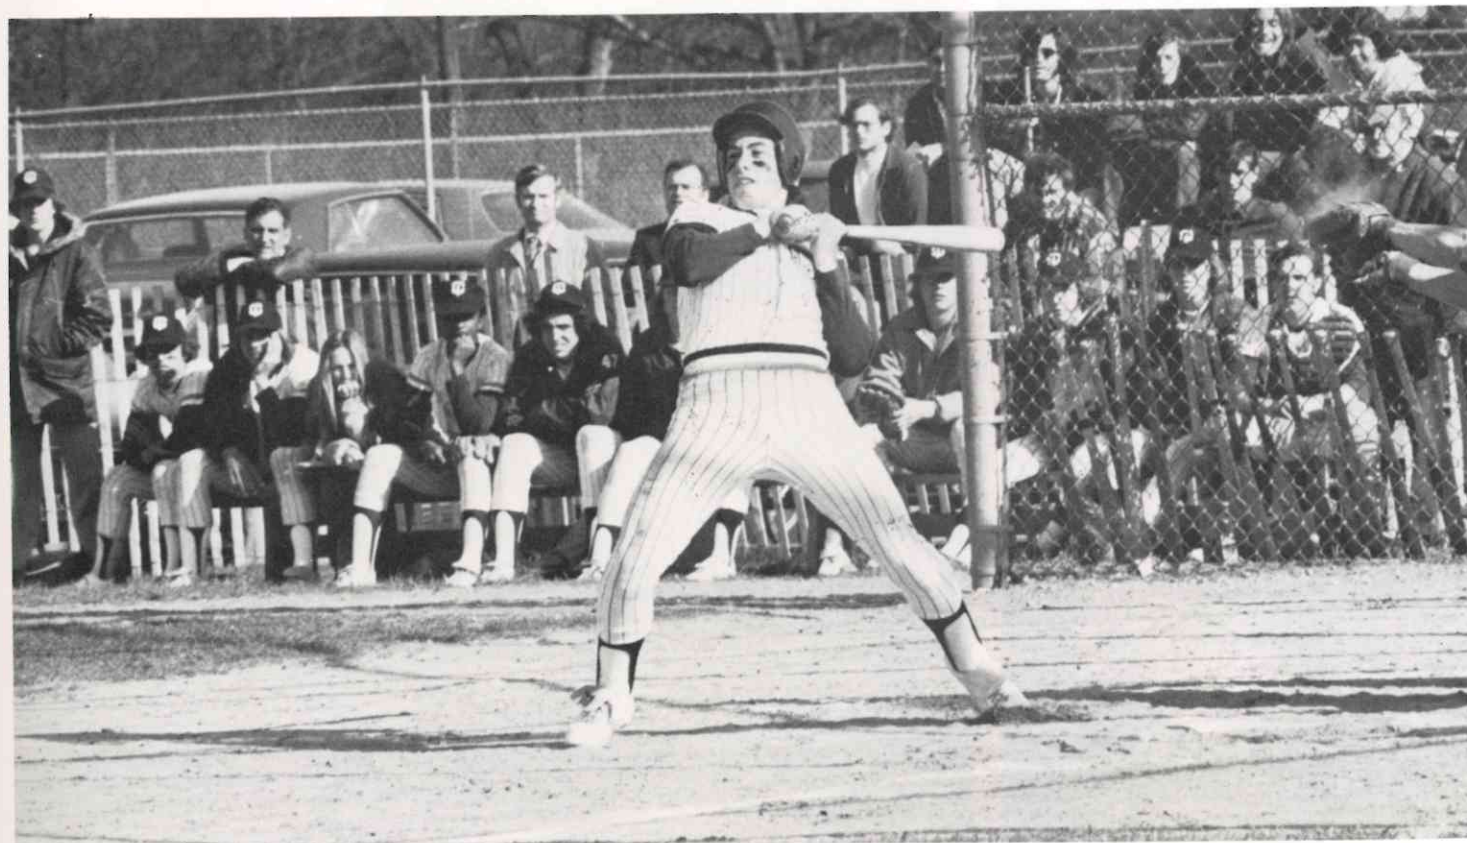

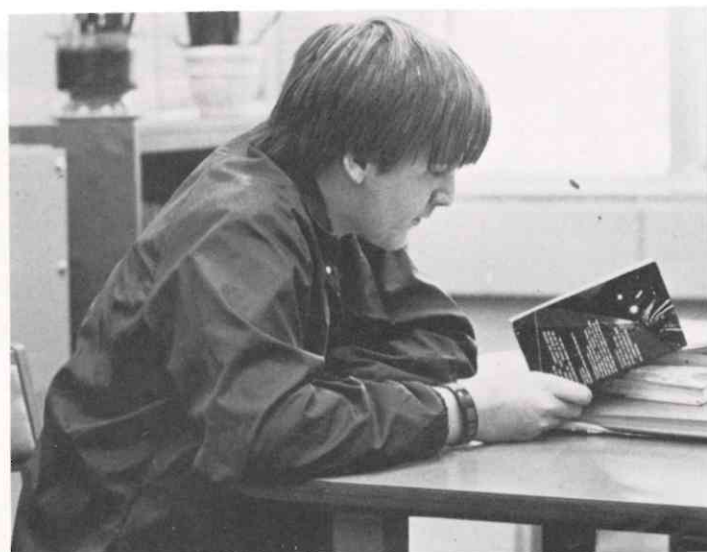

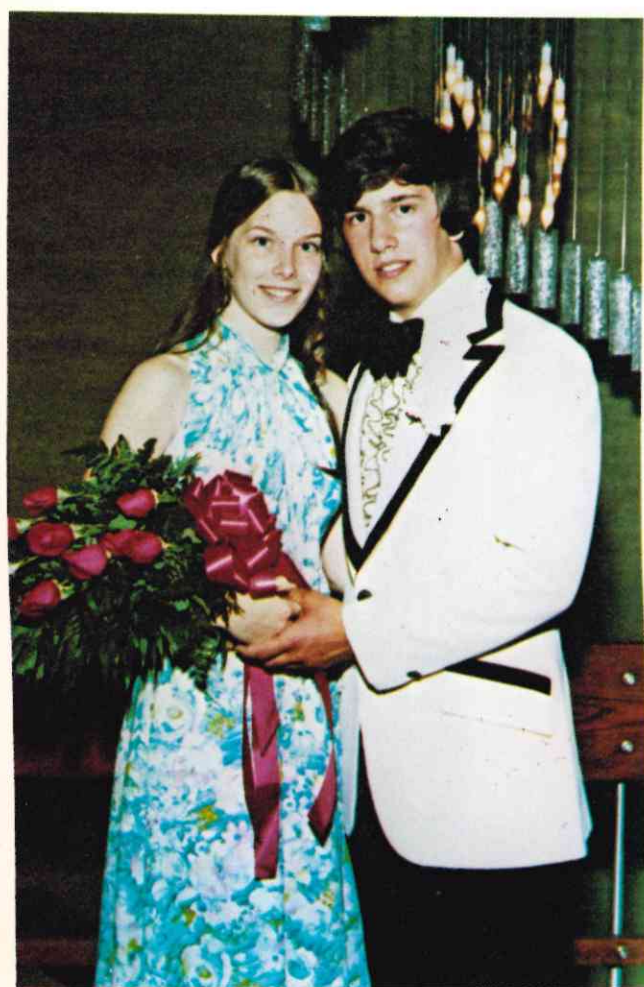

We must gather courage and sail on open seas

Cast
away
our
fears

I wanna laugh
while the laughing is easy
I wanna cry
if it makes it worthwhile

I may never pass this way again
That's why
I want to do it with you

friend

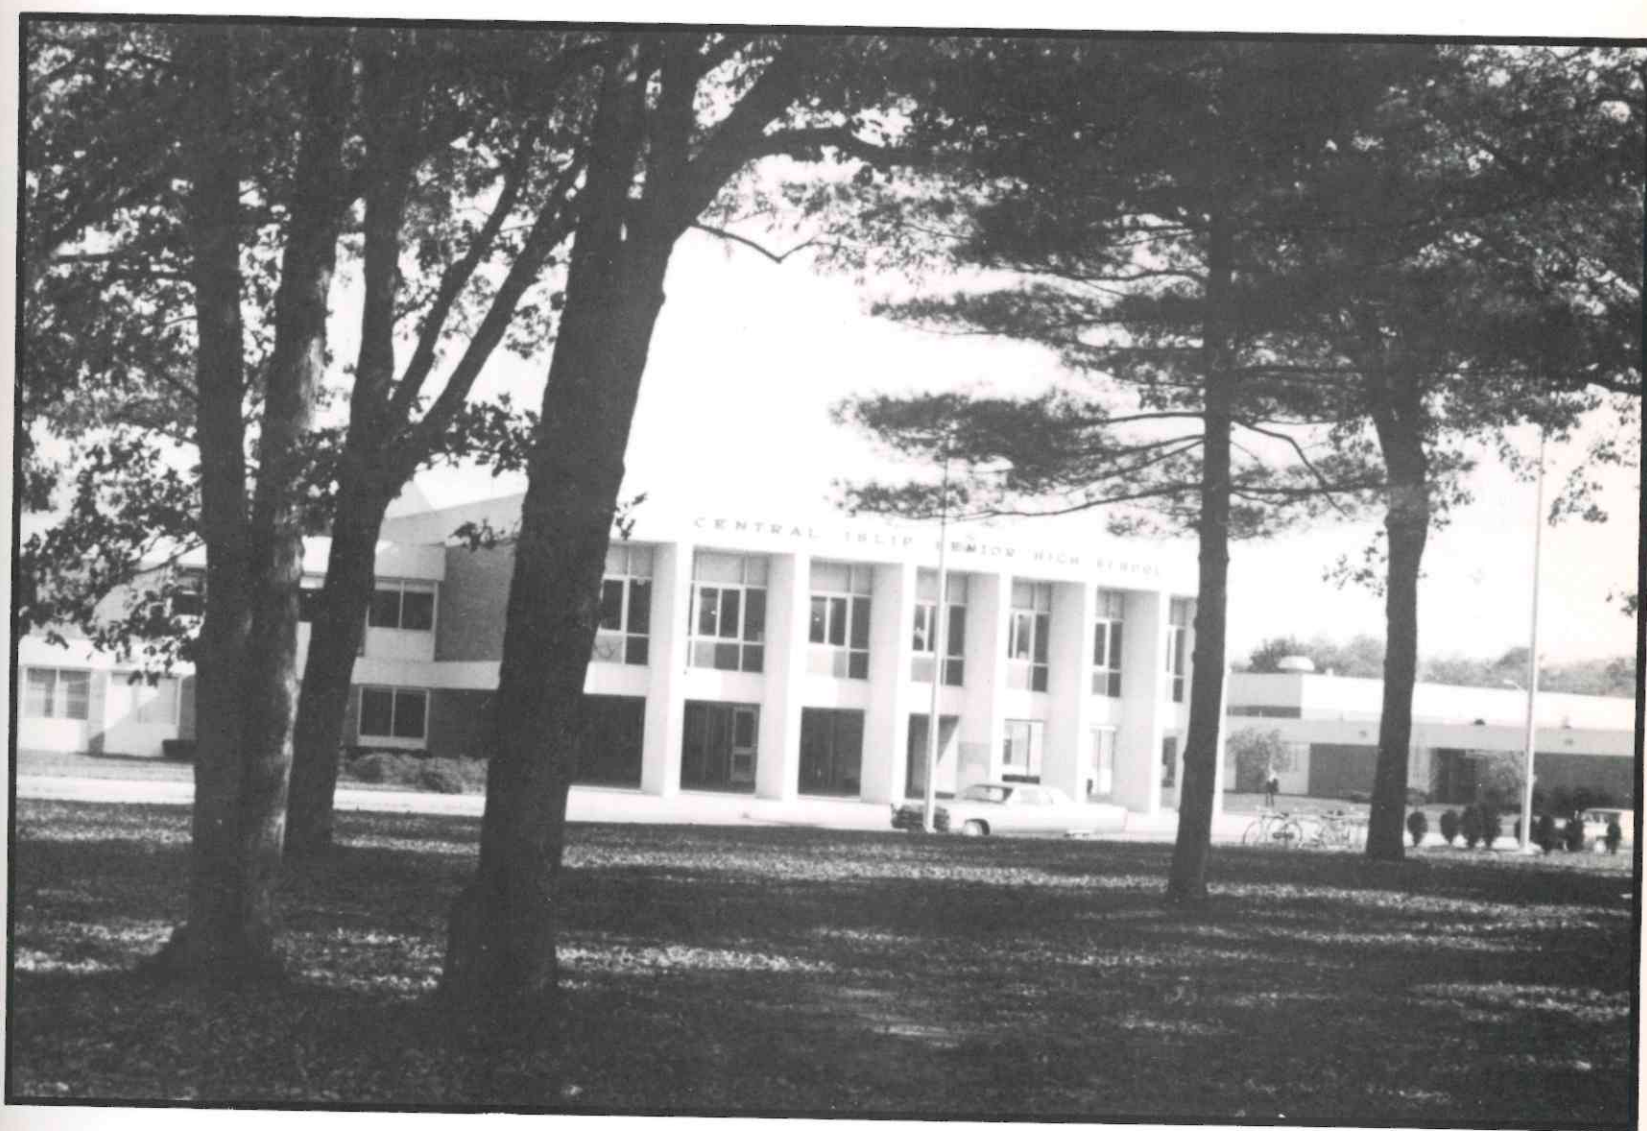

Like
I'm the journey
and . . .

I may never pass this way again.

Dedication

Mr. John Markey

Mr. Markey, has not only taught Social Studies in our high school since 1948 but has also been an asset to both the faculty and student body in many other ways. Among those things to his credit through the years are such as advisor of the Student Organization, assistant coach for both golf and soccer, Junior class advisor and Social Studies Chairman. Therefore, we, his students, are proud and honored to be able to show our appreciation for his help and guidance by co-dedicating this yearbook to him.

Mr. Morselli, besides teaching us health and coaching the Varsity Football and Junior Varsity and Varsity Basketball teams during the years here, he has also helped his students both as individuals and as a group. By emphasizing the good of competition, he has instilled student pride in both teamwork and our school in general. Under his supervision and encouragement our teams have strived to, and perhaps at times, reached their peak. So to you, Mr. Morselli, we say thank you for being an important part of our lives by co-dedicating this yearbook to you.

Mr. Benjamin Morselli

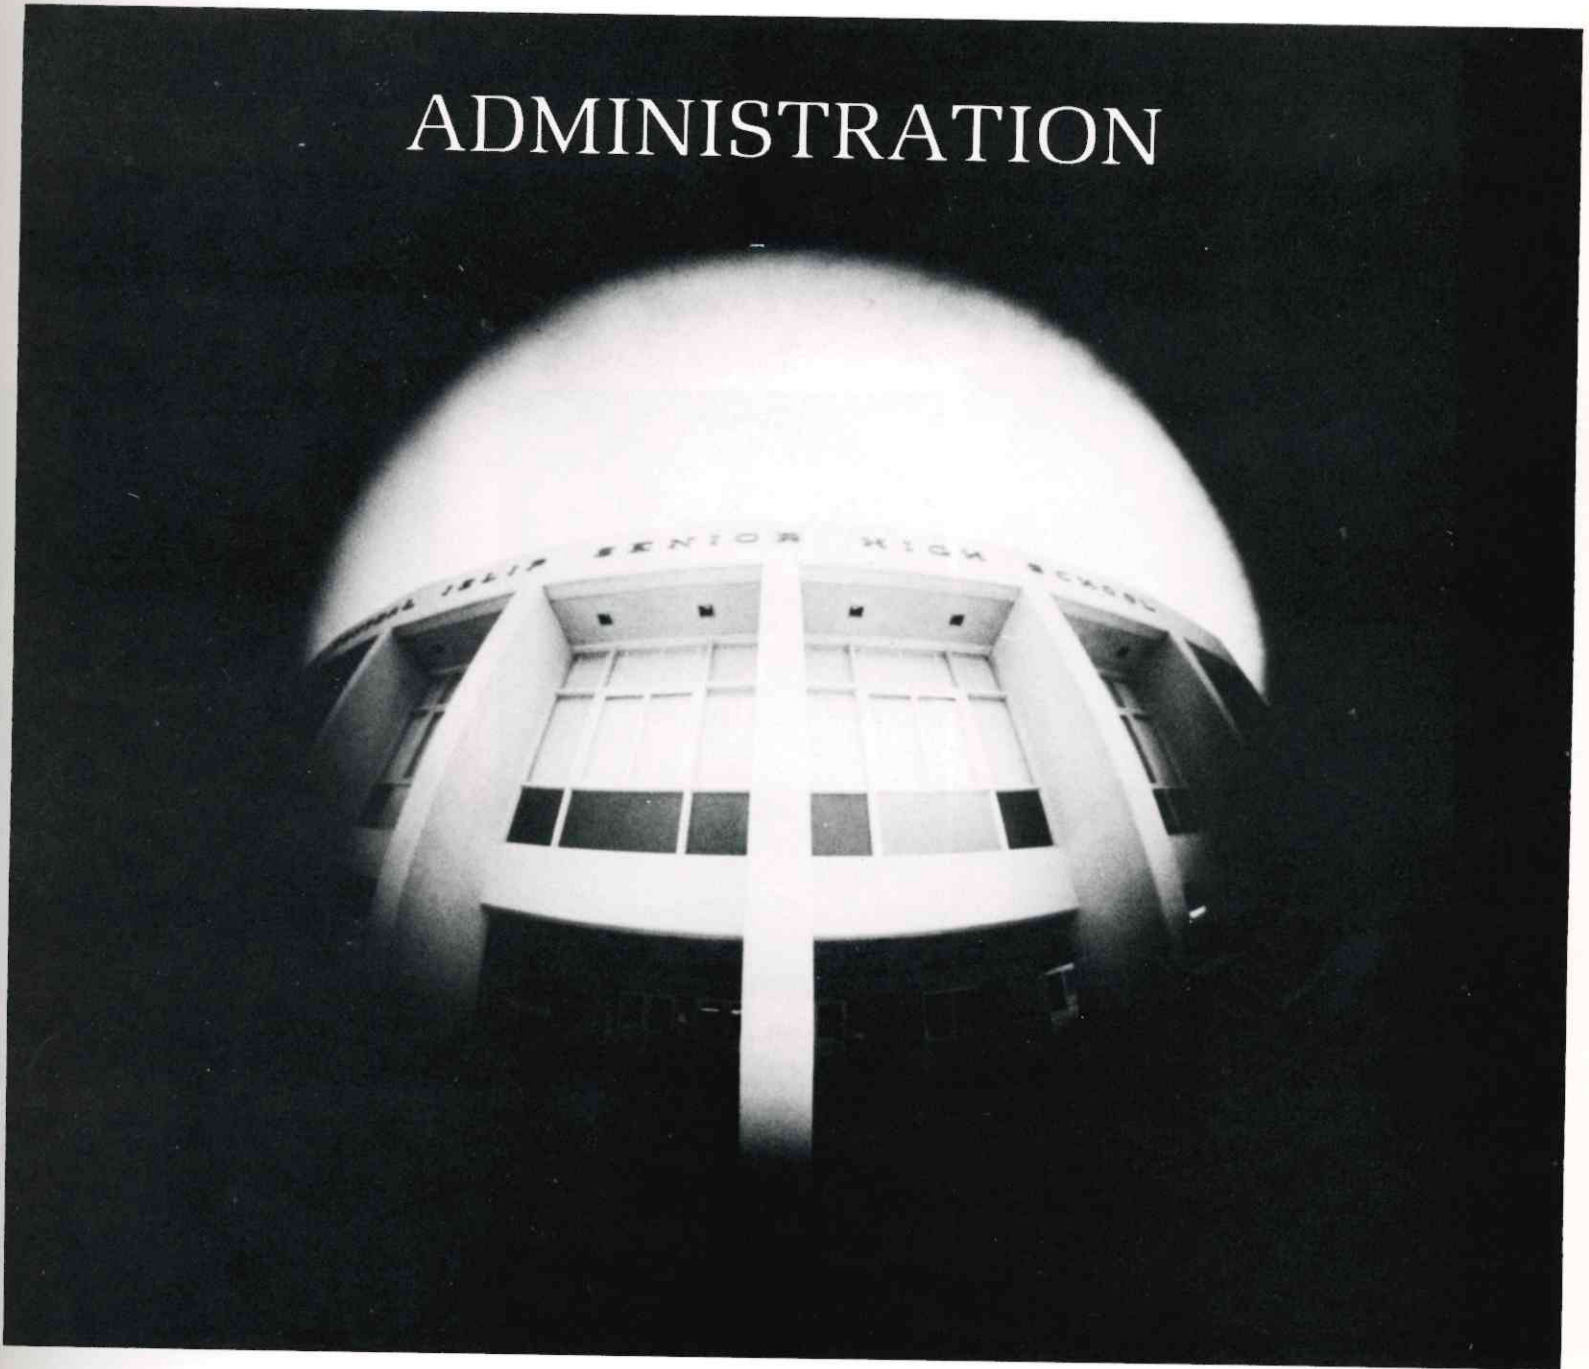

Mrs. Joan Kelly

Mrs. Kelly has not only taught us the academics of English in our years at C.I. but has always been there when we needed someone to turn to, both during and after class hours. Because of her tremendous outlook on life, we have found traits that we admire and hope to carry with us throughout our own lives. So we, the students of C.I., co-dedicate this yearbook to you, Mrs. Kelly, as our way of saying — "thank you for just being you."

Farewell
and Lots of Luck
to
THE CLASS OF '76

Through the radiance
which was once so bright,
Be now ever taken from my sight,
though nothing can bring back the hour
Of splendor in the grass,
Of glory in the flower,
We will grieve not rather find strength in what remains behind, for what has been
must ever be.

Candid

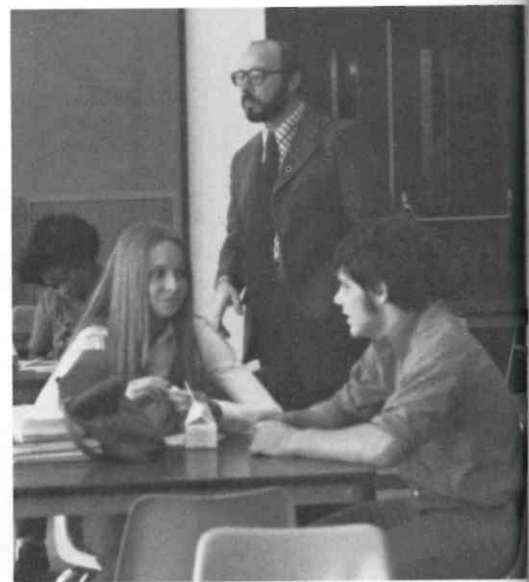

I can be very friendly.

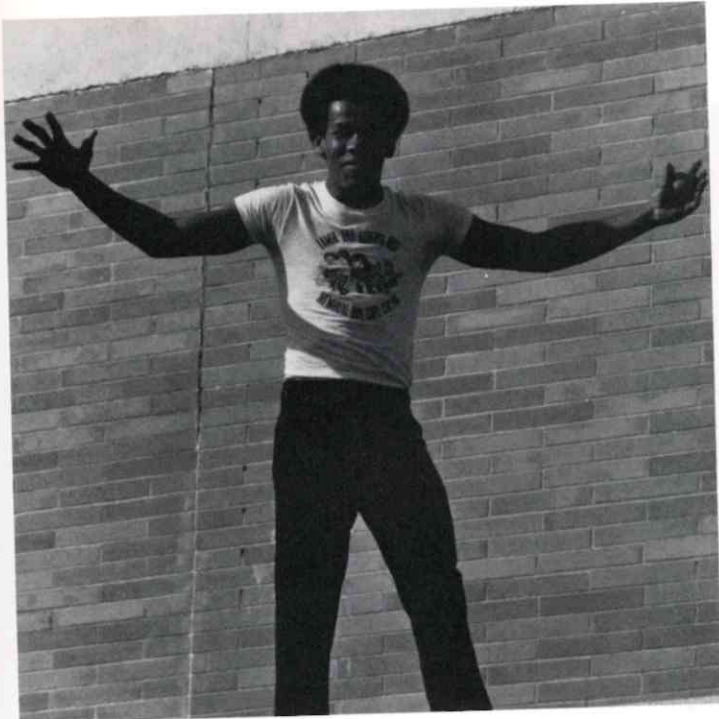

What's cookin' good-lookin'.

Open wide, here comes the choo-choo.

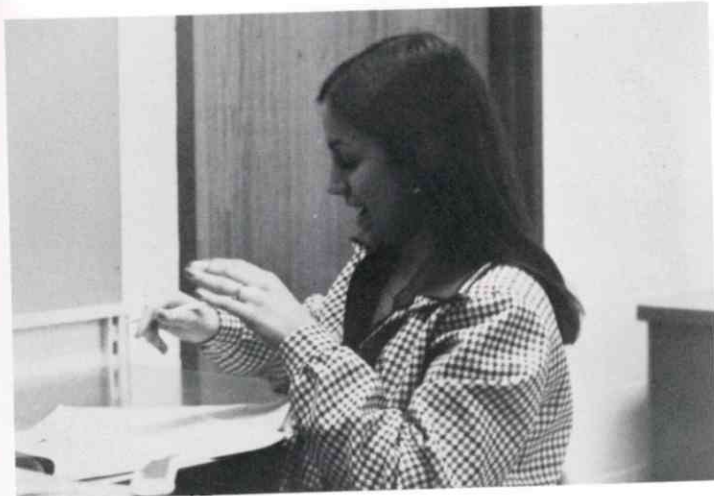

We've got to stop meeting like this.

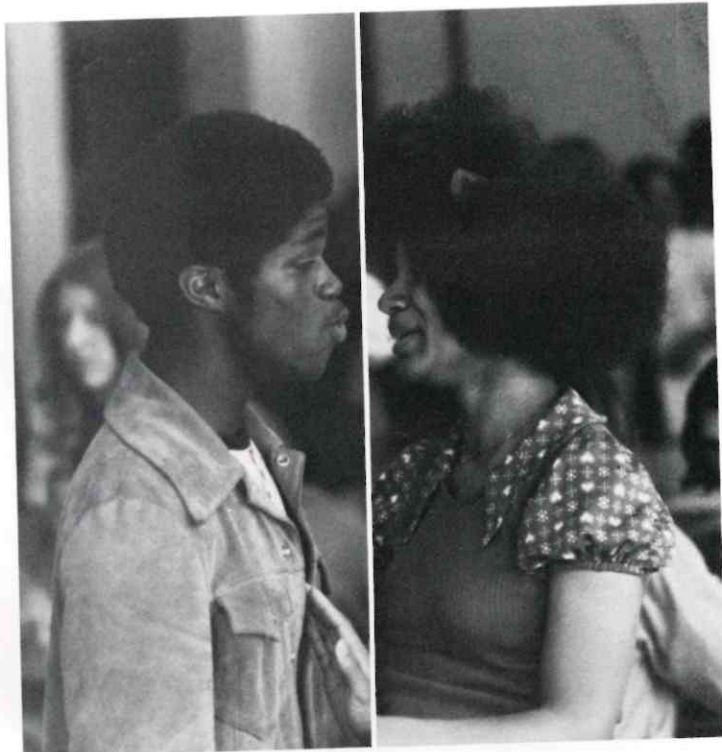

I love you this much!

School's a drag!

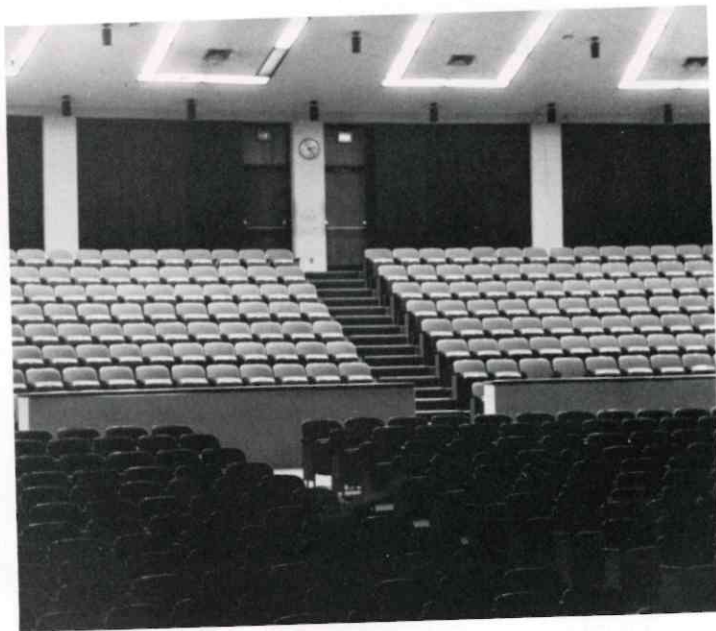

Eureka! I've found it!

Mirror, mirror, on the wall.

Peek-a-boo!

Echo the sounds of silence.

A Dead Tree

There is something mysteriously beautiful about a dead tree.
... as it stands no longer resisting the winds that strip its bark and twists its trunk. . . .
In sunshine rain or snow
it seems to suggest a power long after life has gone. . . .

DRAFTING ORIENTATION

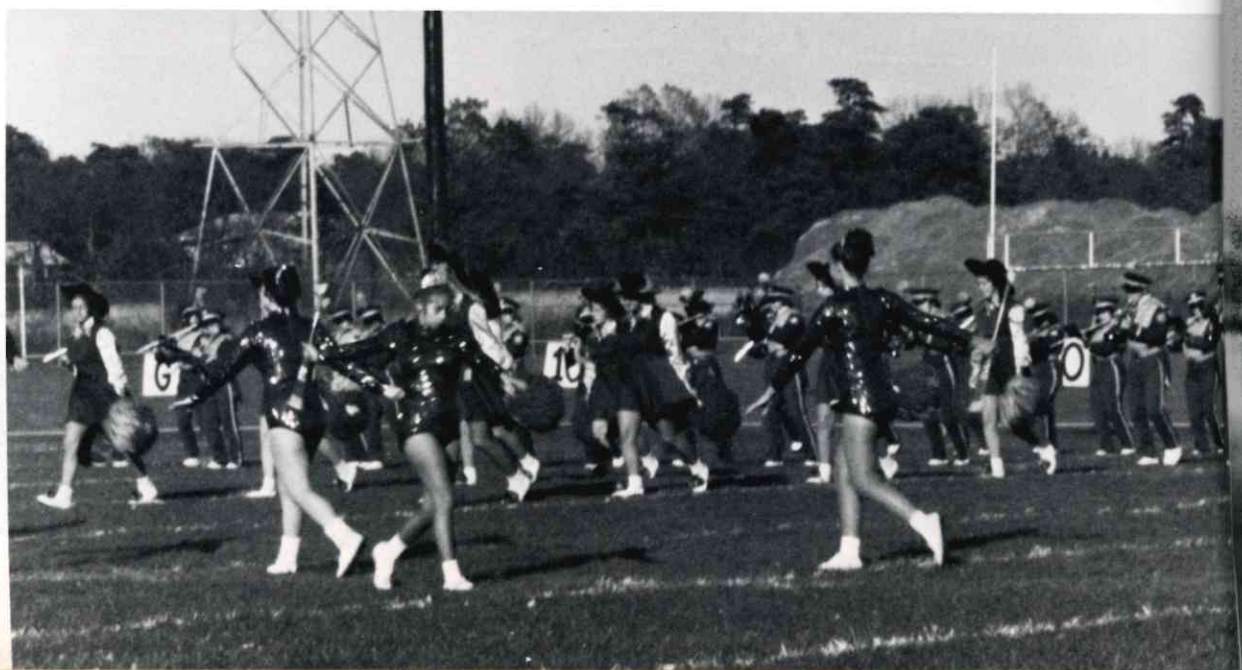

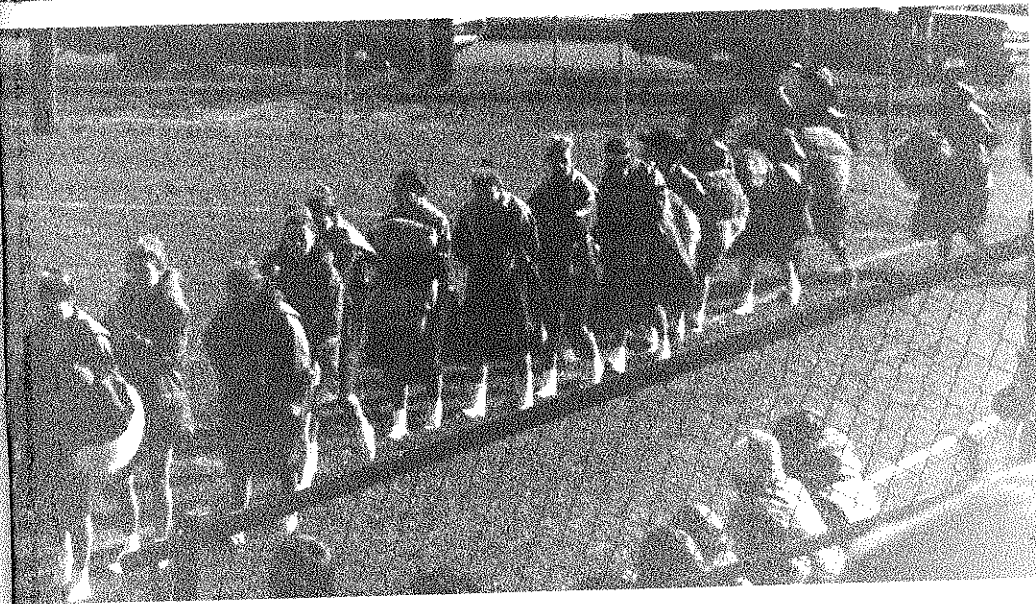

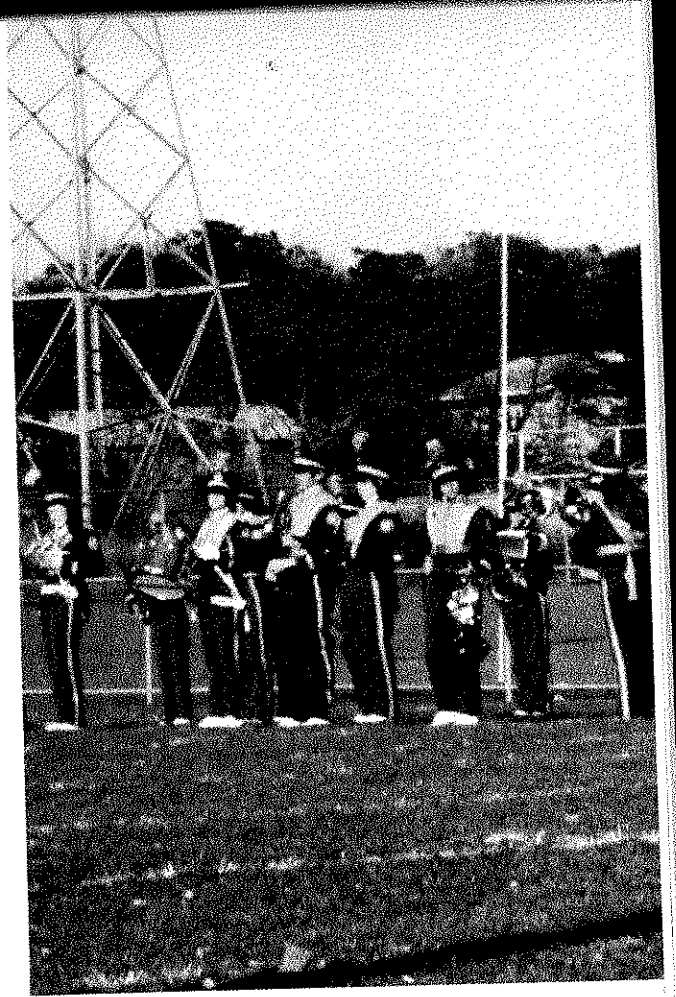

Follow the path of a stone
as it tumbles along the beach Follow the flight of an eagle . . .
as he soars in the sky above Follow the trail of the wind . . .
that blows through the top of the trees Follow the song of a thrush . . .
when evening comes to earth Follow God's mercy in the heavens till it sinks below the lake and your heart will tremble with wonder and joy that can't be ever . . .

MARCHING BAND

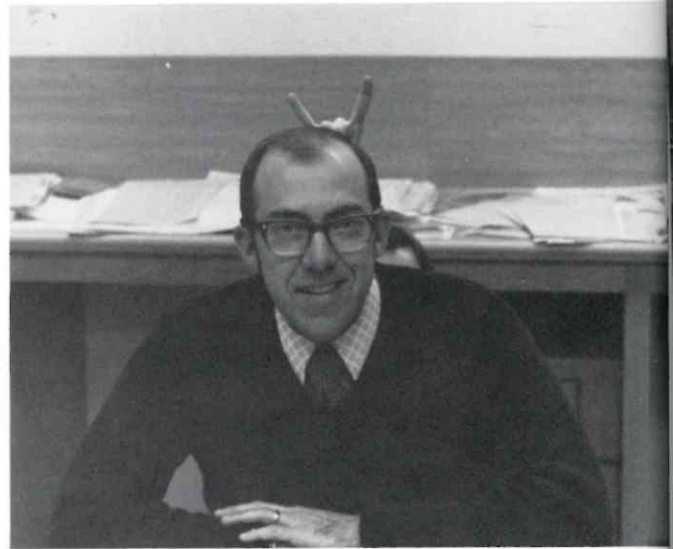

Some people live to eat, I eat to live.

And I don't even have glasses.

This game stinks.

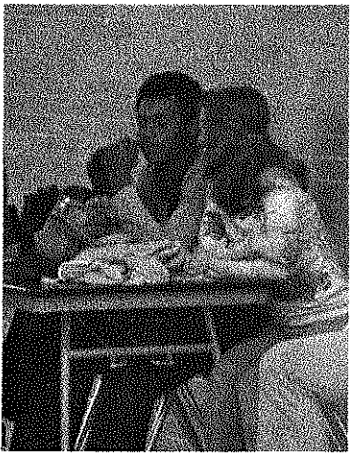

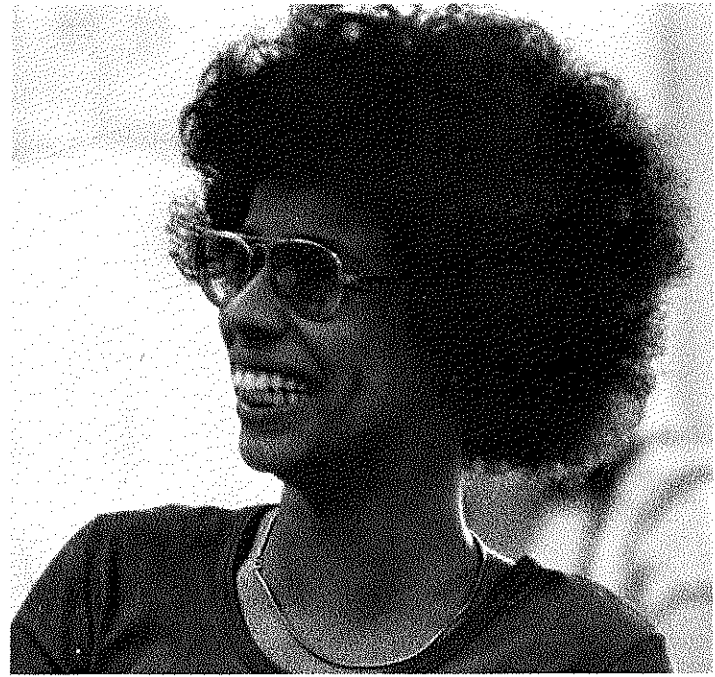

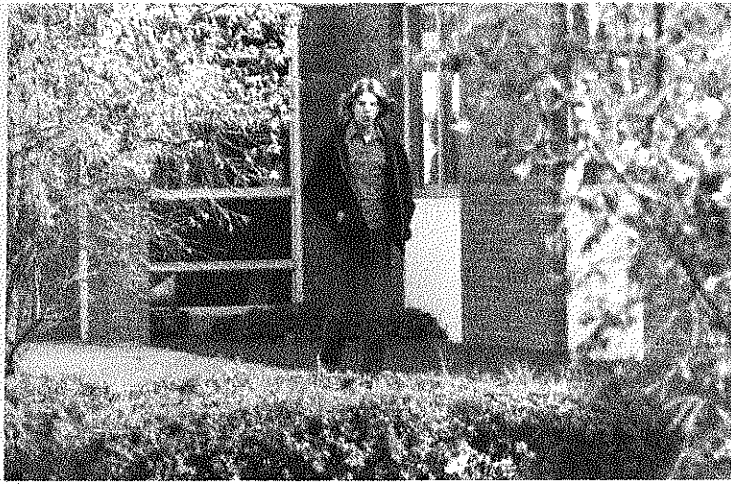

The devil made me do it.

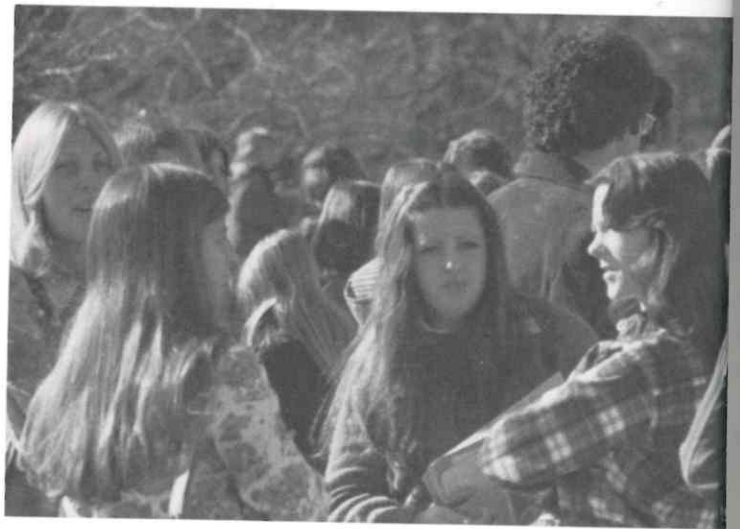

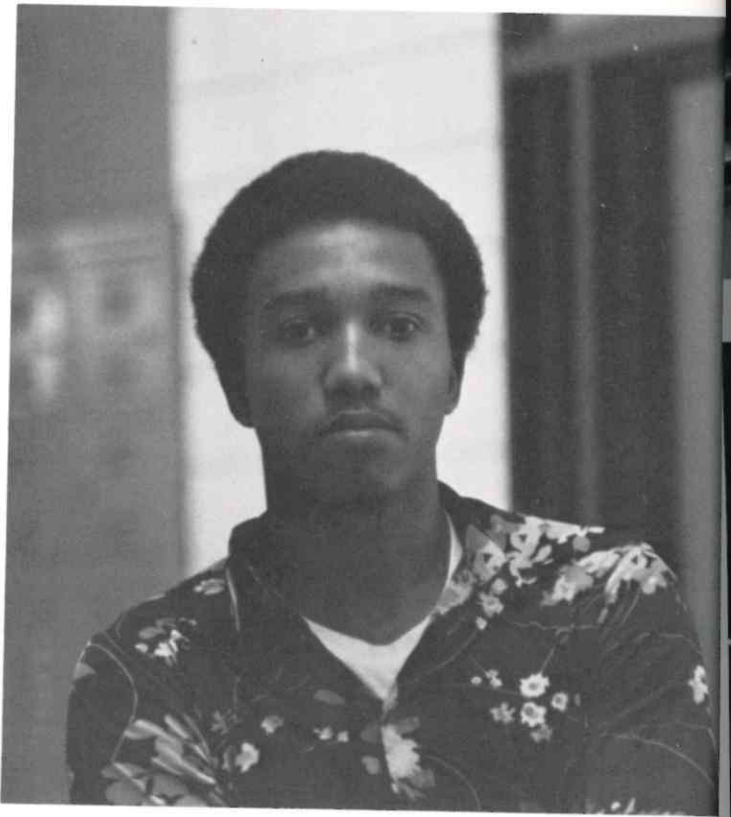

Try a little harder.

Up, up, and away.
